

I don't want my privacy violated by anyone being given permission to call my home. No one should be able to get my information for any cost. It is just a way for these businesses to make a bigger profit. I have a right to privacy and you should keep the majority of the people in you dealings, not just the "paying" businesses. Make the harassment stop - that is all that it is!